INVITATION

LOUISIANA WORLD PEACE DAY STUDENT ART & LITERARY WORKS EXHIBIT

Where:

State Capitol Building in Baton Rouge
Begins Sunday, September 27, 2015

On behalf of the Louisiana World Peace Day Committee and the Louisiana Legislative Youth Advisory Council, students at your school are invited to participate in the Louisiana World Peace Day activities fitting with the theme "World Peace: It Begins with You and Me" by submitting an entry describing world peace and what it means to them. The student exhibit will include paintings, drawings, photographs, essays, poetry, and videos which will be displayed in the State Capitol Memorial Hall (Rotunda) through the month of October. The works of several students will be selected from the exhibition and these students will be invited to present their work at the opening ceremony on Sunday, September 27th. Please refer to the "Student Information" document for more detailed information. Additionally, the work of the selected students may be used for promotional purposes for future World Peace Day events.

Please share this information with your principal and your Art and English teachers. This is an exceptional opportunity for the students at your school to be civically engaged and showcase their talents by using their creativity to express their viewpoints on world peace through this special educational experience. Additional information about World Peace Day 2015, as well as past events, may be accessed at <http://louisianaworldpeaceday.org/>.
